AVANTASIA • The Flying Opera

BOBV308LP • 140g TRIPLE CLEAR VINYL BOX SET

Stunning deluxe triple clear vinyl reissue of Avantasia's first world tour! 1999 was the year when EDGUY vocalist and frontman Tobias Sammet decided to create something huge but at the same time non-recurrent by uniting a variety of legendary rock musicians in the studio to record his metal opera AVANTASIA. Eight years later Sammet gathered his matchless ensemble again to sign with Nuclear Blast and to record and release the two-part EP Lost In Space Part 1 and Lost In Space Part 2 (both 2007). The subsequent record The Scarecrow (2008) arrived like a bombshell, entering the charts in 15 countries (#8 in Germany) and even contained a top-10-single with Lost In Space. What is documented on this triple LP now is the highly memorable first AVANTASIA world tour that followed after the album's big success. It included not only a headline show at the biggest Heavy Metal festival in the world, Wacken Open Air, for an audience of 85,000 people in 2008 and at the Masters Of Rock festival in Czech Republic, but also shows in Asia, South America and all over Europe in front of more than 500,000 people!

JUDAS PRIEST • British Steel
BOBV222LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

British Steel was recorded at Tittenhurst Park, home of former Beatle Ringo Starr, after a false start at Startling Studios, a recording studio located on Tittenhurst's grounds. The band recorded the sounds of smashing milk bottles to be included in "Breaking the Law", as well as various sounds in "Metal Gods" produced by "trays of cutlery" and "billiard cues". Songs "Breaking the Law", "United", and "Living After Midnight" were released as singles, while the track "Metal Gods" earned the band members their moniker.

JUDAS PRIEST • Ram It Down
BOBV232LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

In 1986, Judas Priest intended to record a double album called Twin Turbos of which half would be lighter, more commercial rock, and the other half would be similarly polished but heavier and less synth-driven. As it happened, the project was split into two releases, with the heavier Twin Turbos material being relegated to this later album.

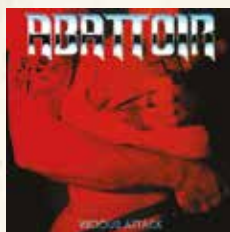

JUDAS PRIEST • Painkiller
BOBV234LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

Judas Priest returned to their classic '70s style, while borrowing contemporary speed metal techniques, resulting in their most critically acclaimed album in a decade. The album is viewed by some as the quintessential speed metal album and the style proved highly influential to European power metal bands such as Gamma Ray and Primal Fear.

EMPEROR • In The Nightside Eclipse
BOBV091LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

"In The Nightside Eclipse" was Emperor's first full-length release (following their debut split with Enslaved) and, despite the fact that it was recorded two decades ago, it is still praised as a Black Metal masterpiece, a fact that is not difficult to comprehend. While this album does fulfil the requirements of an early to mid-nineties Black Metal release, the reason why this album stands a cut above the rest is the way in which Emperor so effortlessly take these elements and surround them in an inescapable atmosphere. By utilizing symphonic keyboards to their advantage, Emperor succeeded in introducing this element into a genre that would otherwise denounce such a tool. By doing so, Emperor cemented their name as the first Symphonic Black Metal band, a label that still stands to this day.

- Side A 1. Into The Infinity of Thoughts 2. The Burning Shadows of Silence
Side B 3. Cosmic Keys to My Creations and Times 4. Beyond the Great Vast Forest 5. Towards the Pantheon
Side C 6. The Majesty of The Night sky 7. I Am The Black Wizards 8. Inno A Satana
Side D 9. A Fine Day to Die* 10. Gypsy*

EMPEROR • IX Equilibrium
BOBV383LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

Any fan or person who appreciates quality musical craftsmanship will surely sing praise to the recording legacy that now represents the career of Norway's Emperor. EARTH CRISIS • Salvation Of Innocents

BOBV384LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

Salvation of Innocents features twelve new tracks from the Syracuse-formed band. Production of the bold concept album offered the respected five-piece an extraordinary recording experience. Guitarist Scott Crouse shares: "the process for this album was new for us. We did most of it ourselves. The absence of pressure having to get things done by a certain time each day really gave us the freedom to try new ideas and critically listen to the songs. From the music, to the lyrical concept, we think we've created something pretty unique."

Side A 1. De-Desensitize 2. Out Of The Cages 3. Shiver 4. The Morbid Glare 5. Razors Through Flesh 6. Depraved Indifference
Side B 7. No Reason 8. The Pallid Surgeon 9. Devoted To Death 10. Into Nothingness 11. Tentacles Of The Altering Eye 12. Final Breath

HAVOK • Burn

BOBV387LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

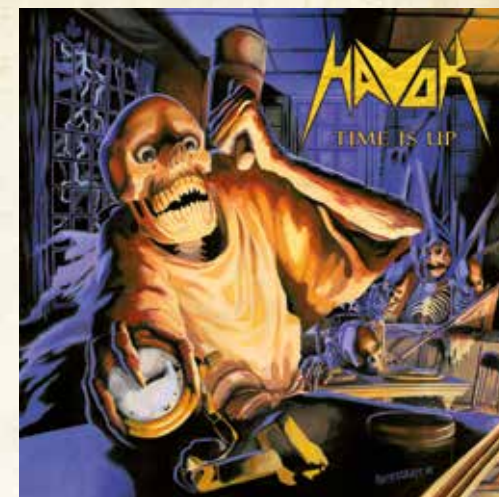

Denver outfit Havok have been compared to the likes of Metallica, Megadeth, Slayer, Anthrax, Pantera, Testament, Overkill, Exodus, Motorhead, etc... And for good reason! They possess a distinct approach to thrash: one that emulates the abrasive styles of classic 80s thrash metal, but with a much-needed fresh edge.

HAVOK • Unnatural Selection + Point Of No Return

BOBV389LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

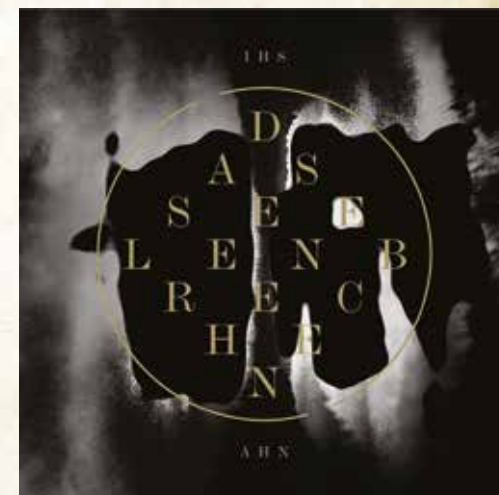

Unnatural Selection is the third full-length album recorded by the US thrash metal band Havok. 10 tracks of stunning modern Thrash Metal. Includes the 4 track "Point Of No Return" EP as a bonus! Deluxe Splatter Vinyl Edition!

HAVOK • Time Is Up

BOBV388LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

Second album from the Denver-based thrashers. Working with producer James Murphy, the band turns the heat up with amazing new thrash anthems. Even Gene Hoglan (Fear Factory) took note, saying: "Havok lays it down old-school heavy like a sharp stick in the eye!"

IHSAHN • Das Seelenbrechen

BOBV380LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

Recorded at his own studio in Norway in collaboration with drummer Tobias Ornes Andersen, Das Seelenbrechen eschews traditional metal instrumentation in favour of a limitless textural landscape that evokes the free-wheeling spirit of artists like Diamanda Galas and Scott Walker, while remaining firmly rooted in the pitch-black well of inspiration that first informed Ihsahn's work back in the Emperor days.

HAWKWIND • Spacehawks

RCV131LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

Straight from the furthest reaches of space and time, comes another dose of the mind altering substance that is Hawkwind. Back once more to delight and astound us mere mortals with their timeless blend of hard rock and psychedelia, blown into orbit on the back of a rocket ship; Hawkwind once again prove they are the Masters of the Universe.

With exclusive tracks, ranging from the re-imagining of classic hits like "Sunship" and "Seasons" to brand new, previously unheard tracks like "Lonely Moon" this is a tour de force of space rock, unlikely to be matched or surpassed by any young pretenders. As if tirelessly producing such an abundant catalogue wasn't enough of a badge of honour, receiving the Lifetime Achievement award for services to Prog Rock has firmly cemented Dave Brock, and Hawkwind, as two of Britain's greatest musical exports.

BOSTON • Life, Love & Hope

RCV136LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

Of LIFE, LOVE & HOPE, band leader Tom Scholz said: "These are all songs from the heart, each of them taking many months of effort to write, arrange, perform and record, always up to the demands of BOSTON's harshest critic - me. They have all been meticulously recorded to analogue tape on the same machines and equipment used for BOSTON's hits for the past 35 years."

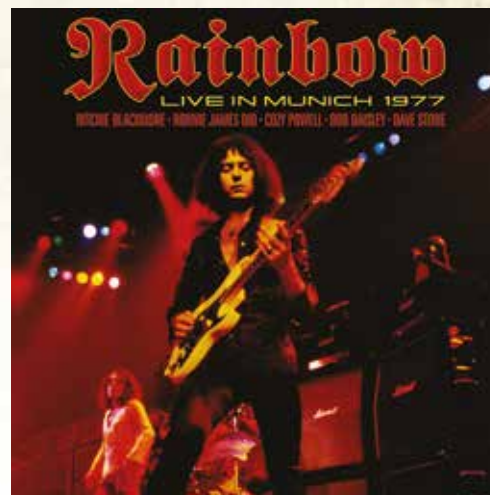

A staple of US Classic Rock Radio playlists, Boston's best-known works include the songs "More Than a Feeling", "Peace of Mind", "Foreplay/Long Time", "Rock and Roll Band", "Smokin'", "Don't Look Back" and "Amanda". They have sold over 31 million albums in the United States alone. Their self-titled debut holds the record for being the highest selling debut album in history and is unlikely to ever lose that distinction. This ROCK CLASSICS deluxe vinyl version features two bonus tracks not available on the CD version.

THE WHO • Live At The Isle Of Wight Festival 1970

RCV065LP • 140g TRIPLE RED, WHITE & BLUE VINYL BOX SET

The Who were one year and three months into their Tommy tour when they played their second engagement at the Isle of Wight Festival. As in 1969, they played most of their famous rock opera, which by this time was quite familiar to the festival crowd. Huge spotlights bathed the audience of some 600,000 attendees, and as The Who's tour manager John Woolf recalls, attracted "every moth and flying nocturnal animal on the island". By August 1970, Pete Townshend was already introducing new songs to the setlist including "Water", "I Don't Even Know Myself" and "Naked Eye". These songs, which were being recorded at the time of the festival, were intended for an upcoming project known as Lifehouse. Although Lifehouse was eventually abandoned, the sessions paved the way to the Who's classic album Who's Next. The Who also performed some live staples such as "Heaven and Hell", "Substitute", "My Generation", "Magic Bus", "I Can't Explain", and the perennial covers of "Shakin' All Over" and "Summertime Blues".

NAZARETH • Hair Of The Dog

RCV096LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

Hair of the Dog is the sixth studio album by the Scottish hard rock band Nazareth, released in 1975. The album was recorded at Escape Studios, Kent, United Kingdom with additional recording and mixing at AIR Studios, London, and is the band's biggest selling album, having sold two million copies worldwide. After three albums with Deep Purple's Roger Glover producing, Manny Charlton stepped into that position, one he filled for several subsequent albums.

It was Nazareth's first big hit album (aside from the minor success of Razamanaz), including classics such as the title track, "Love Hurts", "Beggars Day" and "Please Don't Judas Me".

Side D 7. Please Don't Judas Me 8. Love Hurts (Bonus Track)

NAZARETH • Razamanaz

RCV097LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

The results of the Roger Glover/Nazareth collaboration speak for themselves, with many of the Razamanaz songs stone-cold blues-rock classics to this day. One obvious example is the title track, fuelled by a stop-start riff and McCafferty's fully-developed shriek.

NAZARETH • Expect No Mercy

RCV095LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

Released in 1977, 'Expect No Mercy' is the ninth studio album by Nazareth and features the tracks 'Expect No Mercy', 'Gone Dead Train' and 'Revenge Is Sweet'.

NAZARETH • Play 'N' The Game

RCV109LP • 180g GATEFOLD VINYL

Nazareth's eighth studio album, released in 1976, features the tracks 'Somebody To Roll', 'Waiting For The Man', 'Wild Honey' and 'L.A. Girls'.

NAZARETH • No Mean City

RCV118LP • 180g GATEFOLD DOUBLE VINYL

Based on the 1935 novel of the same name and the first Nazareth album to feature guitarist Zal Cleminson alongside founding member Manny Charlton. Includes 'Just To Get Into It', 'Star' & 'No Mean City Parts 1&2'.
